COMMUNITY NEWS

* The Atlanta Hawks, as part of the NBA Cares initiative, will do a beautification project at Quest 35, Inc., a United Way community partner. Hawks players, coaches and staff, along with Quest clients will be painting several emergency transitional housing units for homeless men and women on 10/14 beginning at 1 p.m. More information about the event will be released this week.

* The Hawks will host a free public scrimmage at Milton High School on 10/19 beginning at 6 p.m. More information about the event will be released this week.

NEWS & NOTES

* The Hawks announced their 2010-11 television broadcast schedule on 10/7, and for the second straight season, all 82 games will be televised regionally or on one of the NBA's national broadcast affiliates. For the first time ever, every Hawks game will be available in High Definition. Bob Rathbun and Dominique Wilkins return for the third straight season as the Hawks play-by-play announcer and game analyst, respectively, while Jerome Jurenovich will serve as the sideline reporter. Visit www.hawks.com for the complete broadcast schedule.

* On 10/6, the Hawks exercised the contract option for the 2011-12 season on guard Jeff Teague, it was announced by Executive Vice President and General Manager Rick Sund. Per team policy, financial terms were not disclosed. Teague, the 19th overall pick in the 2009 NBA Draft, saw action in 71 games last season for the Hawks and finished with 3.2 points and 1.7 assists (.396 FG%, .837 FT%).

* Fans can visit www.hawks.com to sign up for the Highlight Reel (presented by DeKalb Medical), the official e-newsletter of the Atlanta Hawks. Each issue offers Hawks news, player features, multimedia highlights and special ticket offers not available to the general public.

* SportSouth will televise a 30-minute Hawks LIVE pregame show prior to all game telecasts on the network, in addition to the return of Hawks LIVE post-game coverage. Vince Cellini makes his debut on SportSouth as the host of Hawks LIVE alongside analyst Mike Glenn.

* Jerome Jurenovich will host Atlanta Hawks 360, a new, monthly program (on SportSouth and FSN South) providing in-depth features and expert analysis on the team.

* Marvin Williams (flu-like symptoms), Jeff Teague (right ankle sprain), Jason Collins (sore right leg), Jamal Crawford (low back injury), Maurice Evans (knee) and Pape Sy (low back injury) did not make the trip to Detroit for tonight's game against the Pistons.
